Signing Authority & Policies of the Board

2.02 The president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer of the Co-operative have signing authority. The board may by ordinary resolution designate another person(s) as having signing authority or the right to vote on behalf of the Co-operative. The board must record any resolution under this section in the board's minutes. The board may adopt policies related to purchasing, borrowing, privacy and confidentiality, and execution of instruments that must be complied with at all times.

Information Available to Members

2.03 Subject to section 29 of the Act:

(a) Members are entitled to view or copy information or documents respecting the Co-operative's business unless, in the opinion of the board, such information should be kept confidential.

(b) The board may decide whether it will disclose or make available to inspection an account, record or document of the Co-operative. The board may decide the extent of the disclosure and the time, place, conditions or rules of disclosure.

2.04 The by-laws may be amended by the directors. The amendment must then be ratified by ordinary resolution at the next meeting of members.

Additional Rules

2.05 In order to manage the business and affairs of the cooperative, the directors may enact any additional occupancy rules, occupancy agreements, or policies that are not inconsistent with these by-laws, and may amend, repeal or replace any of them. Amendments to the rules of occupancy must be presented to the members for ratification at the next meeting of the members.

Section Three
DIRECTORS

Number of Directors

3.01 The number of directors of the co-operative is nine (9).

Quorum

3.02 The quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board is a majority of the number of directors.

Director Qualifications

3.03 A person cannot be a director if that person:

- (a) is less than 18 years of age;
- (b) is of unsound mind and has been so found by a court of law;
- (c) is not an individual;
- (d) is an undischarged bankrupt;
- (e) is in arrears with respect to payment of housing charges without an approved payment plan;
- (f) is a regular employee of the Co-operative.
- (g) is a spouse, son, daughter, brother, sister, parent or grandparent of an individual who is a director of the co-op. Additionally, no more than one member from each residential unit can serve on the board at one time

Directors Must be Members

3.04 A director must be a member of the Co-operative or a representative of an entity that is a member of the Co-operative.

Election and Term

3.05 Directors are elected by members

- a) Directors are elected by secret ballot at the first meeting of members and at each subsequent annual meeting of members. The candidates for director who receive the highest number of votes cast are declared elected until all vacancies are filled.
- b) Directors shall be elected to three year terms, and such terms shall be staggered to have an equal number of vacancies occurring in each year.
- c) Notwithstanding clause (b) additional directors may be elected to fill the remaining term of a director who has resigned or been removed.

Nominating Candidates for Director

3.06 Candidates for director may be nominated both by a nominating committee appointed by the board, if any, before the meeting of members, or at the time of the meeting of members by any member present. For clarity, members may declare their own candidacy.

Tie Votes

3.07 In the case of a tie among candidates on the first ballot, those candidates' names must be submitted to a second ballot organized by the chairperson of the meeting. The same rule applies to subsequent ballots that must be held in the event of a tie.

Ceasing to Hold Office

3.08 A director ceases to hold office when the director:

- (a) dies or resigns;
- (b) ceases to be a member by withdrawal or termination of membership;
- (c) is removed from office by the members at a special meeting under by-law 3.09;
- (d) per by-law 3.03, is disqualified from being a director; or
- (e) is absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the board, unless in the opinion of the other directors one or more of the absences were justified.

Removal of Directors by Members

3.09 Subject to the Act, the members may, by ordinary resolution at a special meeting, remove any director from office. The vacancy created by such removal may be filled by ordinary resolution of the members present at the same special meeting or, if not so filled, may be filled by the directors in accordance with the Act.

Vacancies

3.10 Subject to section 194 of the Act,

Vacancy where board can meet quorum

(a) If the board can meet quorum and a vacancy on the board arises, the directors may either fill the vacancy by ordinary resolution or continue to run the board without filling the vacancy. This subsection does not apply if the vacancy resulted from a failure of the members to elect the required number of directors, in which case a special meeting of the members shall be called to fill the vacancy.

Vacancy where the board cannot meet quorum

(b) If the board cannot meet quorum, or if the vacancy resulted from a failure of the members to elect the required number of directors, the board must call a special meeting of members to fill the vacancy. If the board fails to call the special meeting or if there are no directors, any member may call the special meeting.

Limited term of the replacement director

(c) A person who fills a vacancy may only serve the balance of the term of the director whose departure created the vacancy.

Exercise of Authority

3.11 Resolutions

(a) The board may exercise the powers of the Co-operative, including the borrowing of money, and the provision of security for such borrowing, by passing ordinary resolutions (majority vote) at their meetings. In the event of a tie, the ordinary resolution fails.

Vacancies

(b) In the case of a vacancy, the remaining directors of the board may exercise the powers of the Co-operative so long as there is a quorum at their meetings.

Resolutions in Writing

3.12 An ordinary or special resolution of the board must be in writing and the decision must be recorded in the minutes of the Co-operative.

Meetings by Telephone or Other Electronic Means

3.13 Directors may participate in committee or board meetings by telephone, electronic or other means. All participants, however, must be able to communicate adequately with each other. Directors participating in such meetings are deemed to be present at the meetings.

Time and Place of Meetings

3.14 Board meetings must be held in Manitoba at a time and place of the board's choosing.

Notice of Meeting

3.15 Notice of the time, place and purpose of each board meeting must be given to each director not less than three (3) days before the meeting. A director may waive the three-day notice period. This by-law is subject to section 200 of the Act.

Regular Meetings

3.16 The board may set a day, time and place for regular meetings of the board. A notice to that effect must be given to each director. Subject to the Act, no other notice is required.

Chairperson

3.17 The chairperson of any meeting of the board is the president or vice-president. Another director may be appointed chairperson by the directors at the meeting.

Conflict of Interest

3.18 A director or officer who has a conflict of interest as described in section 207 of the Act must declare their conflict of interest in accordance with that section. The following rules apply:

(a) All officers, directors or committee members must carry out their duties honestly, in good faith and in the best interests of the Co-operative rather than in their own best interest.

(b) Directors and officers serve without payment of any kind. However, they may be paid for travel or other expenses while doing business for the Co-operative as long as the expenses are reasonable. The board must authorize these expenses. Directors and officers cannot receive compensation for lost income while doing business for the Co-operative.

(c) A conflict of interest is when someone benefits personally in any way from a decision of the Co-operative or has an interest in a contract that the Co-operative may enter into. This Article covers conflicts of interest of officers, directors and committee members.

(d) When a director has or may have a conflict of interest:

- a) The director should declare the conflict of interest at the board meeting considering the matter.
- b) If a director does not declare a conflict of interest, but another director is aware of one, the other director can bring it up at a meeting.
- c) The board then decides whether there is a conflict of interest.
- d) If there is a conflict of interest, the director cannot vote on the matter and must not be present while the matter is discussed.

Insurance

3.19 The board must purchase and maintain general property and liability insurance sufficient to protect the Co-operative from losses or third party liability claims. The board may require members or occupants of units owned or controlled by the Co-operative to purchase personal property and liability insurance.

Section Four COMMITTEES AND OFFICERS

Committees

4.01 The board may appoint committees of directors (minimum of three (3) directors per committee) whose members hold office at the will of the board. The board must determine the functions and duties of each committee. However, the committee may set out its own procedure in accordance with the Act.

The board may, from time to time, appoint such other committees of members as it may deem advisable, but the functions of such other committees shall be advisory only. The board will set the job description and mandate for each committee.

Officers

4.02 The officers of the Co-operative include the president, vice-president, corporate secretary, treasurer and any other officers as determined by the board. The board may specify the duties, powers, and term of the officers to manage the business and affairs of the Co-operative. All officers will be elected by the directors at the first board meeting after the board's election. The board may fill vacancies as necessary. No person can hold more than one office. All officers must be members of the co-op.

Section Five

- d) attend all board and members meetings unless excused by the board.
- e) prepare for all meetings.
- f) sign an ethical conduct agreement and a copy of the Co-ops confidentiality policy.

Indemnity

5.02 Subject to the Act, the Co-operative must indemnify directors and officers, former directors and officers, and persons who undertake or have undertaken any liability on behalf of the Co-operative, and their heirs and legal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgement, reasonably incurred by them in any proceeding to which they are made a party by reason of being or having been directors or officers of the Co-operative, if:

- a) they acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Co-operative; and
- b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, they had reasonable grounds for believing that their conduct was lawful.

Dissent

5.03 Directors are deemed to have consented to any resolution passed or action taken at a meeting of the board or a committee of the board unless they record their dissent within the time and in the manner provided by subsection 213(1) of the Act.

Section Six
MEMBERSHIP SHARES, MEMBERSHIPS AND TRANSFERS

Membership Qualifications

6.01 No person can become a member of the Co-operative unless that person:

- a) if an individual, is at least 16 years of age;
- b) has submitted a written application for membership that has been approved by the board; and
- c) has purchased and paid for a minimum of 425 membership shares.

Membership Obligations

6.02 To apply for membership, a person must express his or her intention to occupy a residential unit owned or controlled by the Co-operative and pay a deposit fee to the Co-operative or purchase further membership shares as a form of deposit as required by the board.

Members that occupy a housing unit owned or controlled by the Co-operative must sign and comply with an occupancy agreement and pay housing charges set out in that occupancy agreement to the Co-operative.

The Co-operative may establish policies approved by the board and/or the members outlining additional qualifications for membership in the Co-operative and membership procedures.

Membership Share Certificate

6.03 The Co-operative is not required to issue formal certificates for membership shares. The Co-operative must, if requested by a member, provide a receipt for the purchase of membership shares.

Transfer of Membership Shares or Memberships

6.04 No transfer of a membership or membership share is valid unless it is completed in accordance with the Articles.

Lien for Indebtedness

6.05 If a member owes a debt to the Co-operative, including through arrears in paying housing charges or other account charges, the Co-operative has and may enforce a lien on:

- a) the member's shares in the Co-operative;
- b) any deposit paid by the member to the Co-operative as a condition of occupying a residential unit;
- c) any interest of the member in the property of the Co-operative; and
- d) any sum payable by the Co-operative to the member.

Withdrawal of Membership

6.06 A member may withdraw their membership in the Co-operative by giving the Co-operative 60 days notice from the end of the current month of their intention to withdraw. The board may, by resolution, accept the member's withdrawal on shorter notice.

Automatic Withdrawal – Death or Dissolution

6.07 An individual's membership in the Co-operative is deemed to be withdrawn 30 days from the date of death. By ordinary resolution, the board may deem a body corporate's membership in the Co-operative to be withdrawn if that body corporate has commenced dissolution proceedings or is dissolved by its corporate regulator. Membership shall also be deemed to have been withdrawn if the member ceases to occupy their co-op unit as their primary residence.

Termination of Membership for Cause

6.08 The board may by special resolution at a meeting of the board terminate the membership of a member for cause. Subject to the housing appeal tribunal process described in by-law 6.12, a member's right to occupy a unit ceases on the effective date their membership is terminated.

Meaning of "for Cause"

6.09 For the purpose of by-law 6.08, "for cause" means:

- a) the failure of the member to pay housing charges as they are due, including regular monthly housing charges, late fees or penalties, or housing charges arising from any payment plan arranged between the Co-operative and the member;
- b) the failure of the member to comply with the terms of the occupancy agreement signed between the member and the Cooperative respecting member obligations to the Co-operative;
- c) the failure of the member to meet any contractual or debt obligation owing to the Co-operative; or
- d) the conduct of the member that is detrimental to the welfare of the Co-operative.

Notice of the Board Meeting to Terminate

6.10 The member must be given at least seven (7) days' written notice of the board meeting under by-law 6.08 and the notice must include a statement of the grounds for termination. Notice must be given in a manner that enables the Co-operative to prove delivery. The member is entitled to appear at the board meeting and must be given an opportunity to be heard, including through an agent or counsel.

Notice of Termination Following Decision of the Board

6.11 The Co-operative must give written notice to the person whose membership is terminated within seven (7) days of the board resolution along with a notice of appeal form with the Registrar's contact information. Notice must be given in a manner that enables the Co-operative to prove delivery.

Appeal Process – Housing Appeal Tribunal

6.12 Appeal to Registrar

- a) Within seven (7) days, excluding Saturdays and holidays, of receiving the notice of termination under by-law 6.11, the person whose membership was terminated may file a written notice of appeal with the Registrar under section 280 of the Act. The appeal will be heard by a special housing appeal tribunal.

Membership and Occupancy Continues

- b) Pending a final decision of the appeal tribunal, the person whose membership was terminated by the board continues to be a member with all rights and privileges of membership, including the right to occupy their housing unit.

Re-Admitting the Member

- c) If the appeal tribunal under section 280 of the Act confirms the board's decision to terminate a person's membership, that person cannot be readmitted as a member of the Co-operative unless by special resolution (two-thirds vote) of members at a meeting of the Co-operative.

Continued Obligation to Pay Housing Charges

- d) The person whose membership is terminated by the board, whether they are appealing the decision or not, must continue to pay housing charges until they vacate their housing unit.

Repurchase of Membership Shares or Repayment of Deposit and Member Loans

6.13 Within a reasonable time, but no later than three (3) months after a person's withdrawal or termination of membership, the Co-operative must repurchase the person's membership shares that were bought as a condition of membership or acquired as dividends issued by the Co-operative or repay to the person any member loans (paid as a condition of membership in the Co-operative) or deposit (paid as a condition of occupying a residential unit) in accordance with section 246 of the Act.

Right of Offset

6.14 If the Co-operative repurchases a member's shares, repays a member loan, or repays a deposit under by-law 6.13, the Co-operative can offset their payment by accounting for:

- a) arrears for housing charges or penalties owing under the housing agreement;
- b) costs to repair the member's unit or appliances/fixtures in that unit, if the damage or disrepair is not the result of normal wear and tear;
- c) costs incurred to reverse any unauthorized changes made to the member's unit (e.g. paint/additions);
- d) costs of dealing with abandoned personal property (per by-laws 6.16(a) and (b));

- e) costs incurred by the Co-operative for the settlement of third party claims against the former member (e.g. unpaid utility bills); or
- f) any other costs or amount related to a debt owed by the former member to the Co-operative.

Restriction on Taking Property

6.15 Subject to by-law 6.16, the Co-operative cannot take a member's property to satisfy amounts due to the Co-operative except by consent or by court order.

Abandoned Personal Property

6.16 If a member or former member of the Co-operative abandons their personal property after ceasing to occupy a unit in the Co-operative, the Co-operative may deal with it as follows:

Property of Little Value

- a) If the abandoned property is worth less than the expected cost of its removal, storage, and sale, the board may dispose of it however it wishes; or

Property of Greater Value

- b) If the abandoned property is worth more than the expected cost of its removal, storage, and sale, the board may sell the property by public auction or an advertised sale if the advertisement will likely attract multiple offers. The board must comply with the process set out in subsection 28(1) of The Cooperatives Regulation, C.C.S.M. c. C223.

Proceeds of Sale

6.17 The Co-operative may use the proceeds of a sale under by-law 6.16(b) to offset any amounts owed by a member or former member to the Co-operative, including arrears and the costs of the sale under by-law 6.16(b). Any remaining proceeds of the sale are to be paid to the member or former member in accordance with The Cooperative Regulation.

Process to Force a Member to Change Units

6.18 If the board requires a member, against the member's wishes, to move from one unit to another unit owned or controlled by the Co-operative, the board and member must comply with a special process (including a right of appeal) under section 279 of the Act.

Dispute Resolution

Dispute Among Members

(a) If there is a dispute between two or more members of the Cooperative arising from the affairs of the Cooperative, the board (or a committee or delegate of the board) may arbitrate or mediate that dispute. The board may determine the process for arbitrating or mediating the dispute between members so long as the process fairly allows each member to participate adequately in the process.

Dispute with the Cooperative

(b) If there is a dispute between a member(s) and the Cooperative arising from the affairs of the Cooperative and not related to proceedings for termination of a membership in the Cooperative, the board must create a three (3) member committee to settle the dispute. The committee must be set-up as follows:

- One person appointed by the member(s) in dispute
- One person appointed by the board
- Third neutral person appointed by the other two committee members

The members of the committee do not need to be members of the Cooperative. The decision of the committee is final and binding on all parties.

Joint Memberships

6.20 Joint memberships may be issued from time to time in the discretion of the board. The board of directors may set rules and regulations respecting ownership and transfer of the joint membership. Regardless of any such rules and regulations, joint members will be granted only one (1) vote.

Section Seven GENERAL RESERVE AND ALLOCATION OF SURPLUS

General Reserve and Other Reserves

7.01 The Co-operative must establish and maintain a general reserve to retain the surplus, if any, for a financial year. The Co-operative must maintain such other reserves as may be required by agreements made with funding agencies.

Minimum Reserve

7.02 The general reserve of the Co-operative must accumulate to a minimum of 2.0% of the total assets of the Co-operative as reported in the year-end financial statements.

Allocation of Surplus

7.03 At the end of a financial year, after making allocations to other reserves established in accordance with 7.01, the Co-operative must allocate any surplus into the general reserve. The board may determine how to use the balance of surplus, if any, after complying with the minimum reserve requirement.

Priority of Payment – Repurchasing Membership Shares

7.04 If the Co-operative resolves to repurchase membership shares from members, they must do so in the following order of priority:

- i. to deceased members whose death has been reported to the Co-operative;
- ii. to members who have reached the age of 65 years;
- iii. to members who have moved out the area served by the Co-operative;
